Business & Breakfast

BOOK CLUB

presented by

COMPASS POINT CONSULTING

Everyone has that pile of books. You know, the ones you plan to read when you have time - yes, we have them, too.

Join our Business Breakfast Series, where you will meet other business executives who are also reading the featured book. You'll benefit from a roundtable discussion and learn some practical tools for your business.

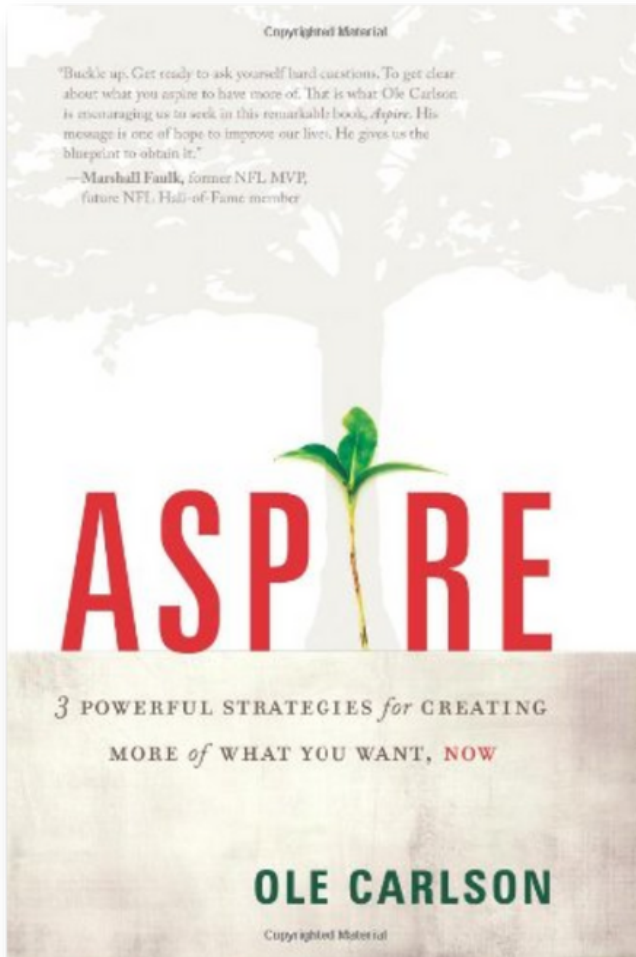

It's easy to get started: Buy the book, start reading and take a moment to RSVP today!

Ole Carlson weaves his life's experience, basic psychology and the law of attraction into a simple, no nonsense template for creating the life that you seek and deserve. There is no fluff in Aspire.

The book stresses accountability, honesty and self reliance as the keys for moving forward in one's life. There is no room in anyone's life to be a victim or martyr if you want to be successful and joyful so says Carlson.

Ole divides Aspire into three sections. Section One asks the reader to investigate honestly their life and audit what is working and what needs to be discarded. Section Two deals with establishing a sound foundation upon which to construct a sustainable and valuable life. What are your values, your vision and mission for yourself? Section Three explains in detail the manifestation process in three vital and essential steps to actualize one's dreams and goals. Aspire is about getting back to basic, simplifying and creating sustainable and valuable results.
